

BIOGRAPHY

Immin CHUNG POSER

Alpsteinstrasse 2a • 9240 Uzwil • Switzerland
(Private) +41-71-950-2662
(Mobile) +41-79-303-6233
pianist@imminchung.com
www.imminchung.com

Pianist Immin Chung Poser is internationally engaged as a solo pianist and a chamber musician. She has presented numerous solo recitals, appeared in concerts and festivals such as International Bartok Congress Concert, International Piano Festival in Houston, Contemporary Music Society of Korea Annual Concert, Lake Cumberland Performing Arts Series among others, and has been invited to several universities as a guest artist.

Dr. Chung Poser got her music education in Korea, USA and Switzerland. She graduated from Yewon School with highest honors, receiving an Award for the Best Student and an Award for Excellent Performers. After completing Seoul Arts High School with honors, Dr. Chung Poser studied at Seoul National University, where her primary teacher was Jung-Kyu Kim. During her study, she was awarded a Full Scholarship for Excellence from the President of Seoul National University and teaching assistantship. She earned her Bachelor's and Master's degrees in Music from Seoul National University, where she graduated with highest honor (Master's Thesis: A Study and Analysis on "Contrasts" of Béla Bartók). Dr. Chung Poser continued her studies at the University of Texas at Austin, where she studied with Danielle Martin. She held a fellowship and teaching assistantship during her study at UT Austin. She worked with Dr. Elliott Antokoletz on her doctoral dissertation "Mathematical and Architectural Concepts Manifested in Iannis Xenakis's Piano Music" and earned her Doctor of Musical Arts in piano performance in 2003.

Ms. Chung Poser is active as a widely recognized and sought after educator. She has taught and is currently appointed at several music schools in Switzerland. As a published author, she has also translated books such as "Illustrated Book of Great Composers" by Wendy Thompson (2004, Anness Publishing, UK).

Ms. Immin Chung Poser currently resides with her husband in Switzerland.